NO MEMBER OF THE ALLIANCE HAS EVER BEEN DENIED

Admission in Fannin County Alliance of Account of His Being Opposed to the Sub-Treasury.

Bonham Daily Favorite. To the Members of the Farmers Alliance of Fannin County and Elsewhere, and to the Citizens of Fannin County:

BRETHREN AND FELLOW-CITIZENS .- My character as an officer has been assailed and a slur cast upon the membership of Fannin county by a man who claims to be a rother by his words, but the tenor of his stuck on me don't sound that way. That man is one Brother R. C. Bragg, justice of the peace of precinct No. 1. I will now try to answer Brother Bragg's charges in my veak and simple way.

First I will notice his head line. He says will wait and anxiously look for my dication for a withdrawal card." That stended as a sincon me and on the memrship of Farnin county—on me for not ing qualified for membership and on the embership for electing me to the office I w hold in the county Alliance. I will now quote the constitution relating o qualification for membership—page 9,

Section I. No person shall be admitted a member unless he has been a citizen of scate of Texas for six months past, and of then unless he be a farmer, farm in-orer, country school teacher, country phy-ician or minister of the gospel; stock-ursers, mechanics and mill hands where are in no wise connected with an on, trust or association of their diffe nt occupations or professions that would of harmonize with the objects of the armers Alliance, be of good moral charer, believe in the existence of a suprem g, be of industrious habits, is a white on and over the age of sixteen years, ther: When any member of the Farm-Alliance shall engage in any occupation ich would render him ineligible before lation, said member shall at once be disnistation, said member stain at office of dis-nissed from the Alliance and furnished by he secretary a written statement of the dust of his dismissal; provided, that the clove shall not apply to members of the Alliance who may be selected to buy and ell as merchants under the supervision of he Alliance.

Sec. 2. Any person employed in merchan-, either as a proprietor or clerk, ever igh he may at the same time own and daet a farm, is by virtue of such employ rendered inclinible to membership in subordinate bodies under jurisdiction he state Alliance; provided the above not apply to members of the Alliance ho may be selected to buy and sell as mer bants under the supervision of the Alii

Sec. 3. Any Farmers' Alliance having embers who are not eligible according article 5, section I, and the same being with on good authority to the president of county Alliance, it shall be his duty to sort the same to the judiciary committee shall, after due consideration, direct president of the Farmers' State tage to order the immediate dismissal such member or members and upon refusal of reglect of the Farmers' name to dismiss such member or cembers, it shall be his duty to declar charters of such Farmers' Alliance

Sec. 4. No person shall hold membership more than one Alliance at the same time Sec. 5. There shall not be any partisan o sectarian test for membership. Brethren and fellow dizzers, I claim that I am elligible to membership in the Farm-ers' Alliance under two heads—first, I am a farmer, and secondly, I am a stockraiser. I lice on the farm, I work on the farm, I mike my living on the farm by farming and passing stock. Did any of you ever know of my following anything but farming and ock-raising f Don't all speak at once. I own something near twelve hundred cres of black land—from four to six hun-bred acres in cultivation. I own about orty-live head of horses and mules and hirty-five shares in Familia county bank, amous of the directors and have used my affice in beliaff of the members of the Alliance and the farmers of this county in said bank. I never have gone to said bank for a favor to accommodate a poor farmer but what it was granted. I don't say that the other banks would not have done the Brethren and fellow citizens, you all know but the Farmers' Alliance and the Demo-ratic party are terrible hard on national marks. I thought it best to do the most of our business through the Fannin county bank: I being a stockholder in said bank and a director, if anything should happen I could have the bank to hold up on us. Brethren and fellow-citizens, I mention this to show you that Brother Brings's atk on me is without a just cause. Brother agg says he was kicked clear out of the deputy meeting of the Farmers' Alliby high-handed, contemptible bossism

Brethren, you know I am not authorized disclose any of the workings of the or-r warle in secret session. Our last meet-g was all in secret. will tell you and the good people of Fan-

say Brother Brage was not kicked out, there was any kicking done, I did not county what controlled my act in Beather Bearry's case First, I am a sworn officer of the county Alliance; seconday, from a sense of in obstience to resolution 6 and a desolution 6. Whereas, certain so-called Alliance members have organized them-selves into a foul conspiracy to fatally stab. If within their power, the Farmers' State Alliance of Texas—first, by issuing the cirthe known as the Austin manifesto, and condity by establishing a paper known as e Farmers' World at Dallas, Tex.; and, hereas, the issuing of said circular and ie publishing of said paper were clearly tended to de fingrant violence to the pros-city of the order in the most far-reaching manner; therefore, be it resolved, that all persons whose names appeared signed to said Austin manifeste, to-wit; and that all calledgAlliacemen who are now man-ring the publication of the Farmers' orld in opposition to the Farm-s' Alliance of the state of Texas, be, and they are now declared, no longer mem-bers in good standing of the order, and all sub-Alliances of the state, by the adoption this resolution, are so notified and harges preferred. Part of resolution 20, to which I referred to above: Whereas, the state Alli-ance of Texas at its present session has passed a resolution to authorize the presi-dent of this body to suspend the signers of the Austin manifesto and the stockholders of the Farmers' World. Brother Bragg. who was on the committee on resolutions at the anti-sub-reasury meeting in Bonham on the 9th of September, 1891, did say in his report to that meeting these words, and by resolution declared not members good standing." I suppose he referred to the resolution above quoted by me. He well knew that if I did my duty as an officer I would do ust what I did. I am not sorry of my act a his case, but am sorry that I had to do what I did he can call it what he pleases. Brothren and fellow-citizens. Brother Bragg says I am a life-long Republican and a noted one too. I did not know that was contrary to Alliance principles. He said that for effect. He says he always thought my real for our noble order was measured to some extent by my desire for personal cein and the final overthrow of the grand coin and the man of old Democratic party.

What have I gained? My salary as an When I put up about $10 a year. When I put up about $12 a officer is about $10 a year. When I put up at the hotel my expenses are about $12 a year. That don't look much like personal gain, does it!
As to the final overthrow of the Demo cratic party, that is too absurd to think about. I would not if I could. Nine out of come ten Alliance men are Democrats. A large majority of my best friends are Democrats. Nearly all my neighbors are Democrats. Nearly all my neighbors are Democrats. I have the kindest regard for good crats. very ten Alliance men are Democrats. eribe for the Weekly Commission of the Property of the Propert bound as Brother Bragg. He would overthrow creation if it did not go to suit himhe is J. P. of precinct No. 1, and a noted me, too. He says I have through ignorance or malice, by virtue of my position, thrust him from the order without a trial. The com-mittee on good of the order in his Alliance is the court he should first come before and if he is not satisfied with their decision he has a perfect right to appeal to the county board, and if he is still dissatisfied he can appeal to the state board. What more could be ask? He has three courts to hear him, he knew that all trials come be fore their respective committees - sub-county and state.

He don't want his case to come before any committee. He wants just what he got so he could create a great sensation and arouse the sympathy of the outside world in his behalf, knowing that his Alliance career is about to end.

He says something about an obligation

I deny the whole of what he says about an obligation. Anyone who takes the Alliance obligation and afterwards discloses it. is a man I have no confidence in. I don't care who he is. He says a high-handed fight against the anti-sub-treasury membership of the order is being waged and urged on chiefly by a set of mugwimps who never should have been admitted, they being in-eligible to membership. I say the anti-subtreasury members have had a fair and square chance to carry the county against the sub-treasury, failing to do so, a few of them, not willing to bmit to the will of the majority, have submit to the will of the majority, have gone out and tried to organize an anti-sub-treasury Alliance. At Fort Worth they elected their executive committee, which means organization. They would not admit a sub-treasury man, so I was told by a man who was there. They thrust one sub-treasury man from the hall, so reports say, at their meeting at Bonham. Some of them were from defunct Alliances. At St. Louis ome of them were expelled members. No member of the Alliance has ever been denied admission in Fannin county Alliance on account of his being opposed to the sub-treasury. At our last meeting of the treasury. At our last meeting of the county Alliance there were several who oposed the sub-treasury plan. There we come who were at Fort Worth and at Bo There wer ham in the sub-treasury meetings. All members in good standing in their sub-Alli ances, and who are not included in resolu-tion 6 and a part of resolution 20, passed b the last state Alliance, will be admitted it the county Alliance as far as I am cor cerned.

Brethren, I mention all these things to show the good people of Fannia the facts as they are, and to show you that Bre. Bragg's whole statement is made to create a false impression in the minds of the outsid

Brethren, I have done my whole duty a an officer to the best of my understanding, and whenever you think I fail to do my duty, or that some one else can fill my place better than I can, he is the man I want. know we have several hundred members who can fill the office I hold and perhaps better than I can. I am your servant, no your master. Am willing to resign at any time when a majority of the members think it is to the interest of the order.

See by-laws, eighth clause: 'Any officer who shall fail to fulfill the dates of his office or absents himself from his Alliance for three stated meetings in succession without valid excuse, shall be suspended

I will now call your attention to the con stitution, page 17, article 12, section 1. Any member who may bereafter disclose any of he workings of the order, or who may im part the pass-word of the order knowingly to any one not entitled to the same, shall, on conviction thereof, be immediately exselled from the body, and shall not be eligi-ole to membership thereafter. To Hon, John D. Fields. President Farmer's State Alliance of Texas:
Your committee on judiciary, to whom was referred the case of appeal from Travis county, have had the case under consideration and ask leave to report as follows:
'In this case Neal J. McArthur, a member of Goodall Alliance in Travis county, was charged with 'divulging the warkings a secret session of the Alliance and further of accusing John D. Field and other memof accusing John D. Pield and other mem-bers of the Alliance of embezzlement and malfeasance in office. It appears that in the trial in Goodall Alliance McArthur was convicted upon the first charge only. Appearant was then taken to the Travis county. All nce, which body sustained the charges in full, declaring McArthur guilty; your com-mittee, after full investigation of all evidence in this case and without attempting to give a synopsis of the same, unanimousl ask that the action of the Travis county A lance in this case be and the same is hereby affirmed. Brother Bragg at the July meeting of the county Alliance obtained some of the work ings of the county Alliance, which were the workings done in secret session, and the next week the same was published in the newspapers of the county and in the Farm-

Brethren and good people of Fannin county. I mention these facts to show you that the county Alliance has been very easy on Brother Brags. If he had been dealt with he would now be in company with McArthur.

When Brother Bragg obtained a copy of some of the workings done in secret session he obtained with the understanding that it should not go to press. It went to press as sefore stated. At the last meeting of the county Aliance, which was in secret session, he went from the Aliance hall and cried aloud and spared not some of the workings of the order, which was in violation of article 12, section 1, of the constitu
